WHEREAS Plaintiff Kalman Rosenfeld (“Plaintiff”) and Defendant AC2T, Inc. (“AC2T,” and together with Plaintiff, the “Parties”) entered into a protective order that was so ordered by the Court on April 23, 2021 (the “Protective Order”);

WHEREAS Plaintiff has requested from AC2T discovery of materials that include highly sensitive competitive business information including contracts with distributors and personal identifying information of consumers;

WHEREAS AC2T wishes to produce the materials in a way that protects its business information from disclosure to parties that could use it in ways that may harm AC2T’s business and compromise its proprietary information, and that protects its consumers’ personal identifying information;

WHEREAS the Parties have agreed that redaction of the above-mentioned sensitive information would be time consuming and cost prohibitive;

The Parties have stipulated and agreed to supplement and amend the Protective Order as follows:

1. “Sensitive Commercial Data” includes contracts with retailers, vendors, buyers, suppliers, distributors, customers, employees, and laboratories that contain pricing terms and other competitively sensitive information.

2. “Sensitive Personal Data” includes consumer names, home addresses, images of consumer homes, phone numbers, and e-mail addresses.
3. Pursuant to paragraph (d) of the Protective Order, any person who is not a party or an attorney for a party shall be required to sign an agreement and be bound by this Amended Stipulated Protective Order, attached hereto as Exhibit A, before being provided with any documents that are designated “confidential.”
